

Defying Doctor, Prosecutor Simpson 'Kidnaps' State's Star Witness

DEFENSE'S "ACES." Joseph Reilly, 15, who formerly lived in the home of Mrs. Gibson, and Mrs. Salome Cernner, mother of the "pig woman," are expected to prove valuable witnesses for the Hall-Mills defense. They are being closely guarded by Detective Gregory, with whom they're shown above.

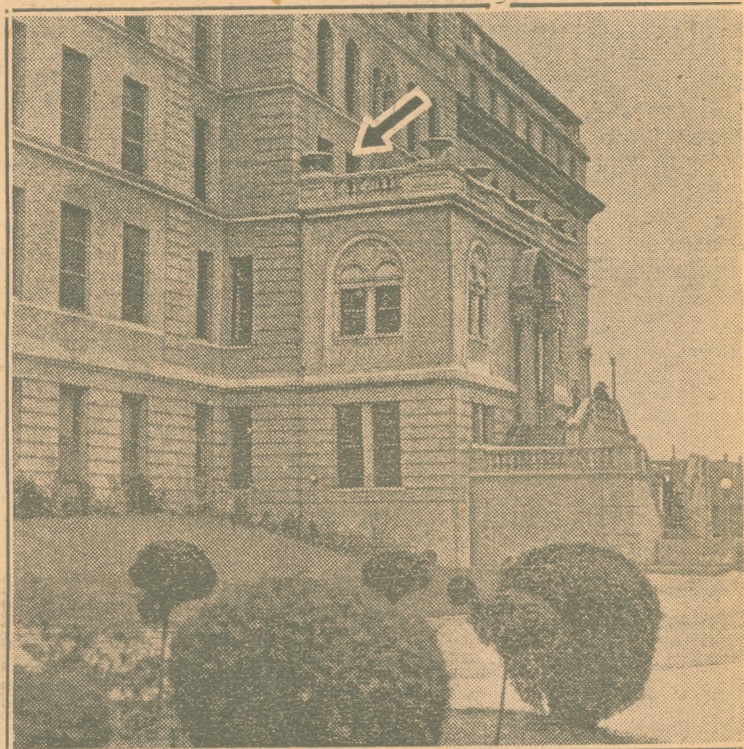

PIG WOMAN MOVED.

Disregarding orders of doctors, Prosecutor Simpson had Mrs. Jane Gibson transferred to Jersey City Hospital yesterday. Photo shows ambulance which brought "pig woman" to hospital.
